Website checklist for trainers & coaches

PTs, fitness studios, life and business coaches

SWIPE →

What to include

- Who you help (be specific)
- What working with you looks like
- Real client results (with permission)
- Your qualifications
- Prices or packages
- One clear way to start

01

Be specific about who

“I help busy parents get strong in 30 minutes” beats “I help everyone get fit”.

02

Show what happens next

Is it a free call? A trial session? Make step one tiny.

03

Skip the half-finished weekend site

A DIY site that never gets finished helps nobody. One clear page does.
